

Celebrate Cinco de Mayo with award-winning author Diane Gonzales Bertrand and a performance of David Prather's joyous John & Juan. Gonzales Bertrand is the author of five bilingual picture books for children, including The Empanadas that Abuela Made/Las empanadas que hacia la abuela, and six novels for young readers and high school students, including Trino's Time and Trino's Choice, both named young adult book of the year by the National Latino Literary Hall of Fame. Gonzales Bertrand teaches at St. Mary's University in San Antonio.

Cinco de Mayo para Niños

with Diane Gonzales Bertrand
and John & Juan

Presented in collaboration with Arte Público Press and the Alley Theatre

A Family LITERARY EVENT!

John & Juan, as author/performer David Prather likes to say, is "500 years of Texas history in 45 minutes of fun." This madcap two-man play explores the shared history of Texas and Mexico, as pivotal events come to life through the eyes of two young athletes from opposite sides of the border.

25 YEARS
Bringing Great Writers
to Texas

Saturday, May 6, 2006
11 am
Free admission

Alley Theatre, 615 Texas Avenue